Announcement of Winning Appeal Court Judgment in National Tax Case

As disclosed in the “Announcement of Favorable Ruling in National Tax Case” release dated March 2, 2007, ARUZE CORP. (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) filed a corporate tax reassessment revocation lawsuit with the Tokyo District Court in dissatisfaction with a determination issued by the National Tax Tribunal in Tokyo on a tax reassessment for 1998. The Tokyo District Court accepted the Company’s allegation in nearly its entirety and entered a judgment rescinding the assessment on February 23, 2007.

Subsequently, having found this judgment to be dissatisfactory, the national government filed an appeal with the Tokyo High Court on March 9, 2007. Please be advised that the Tokyo High Court entered a judgment dismissing the national government’s appeal on February 20, 2008.
