2. Reason for Revision of Business Performance Forecast (Consolidated) for Full Fiscal Year

In the Company's Pachislot and Pachinko business during the fiscal year ending March 31, 2008, regarding Pachislot machines, the Company achieved approximately 166,000 units sold to and installed in Pachinko parlors. Additionally, Pachislot software title replacements during the fiscal year numbered approximately 27,000. However, the total of these figures fell slightly under the target figure of 200,000 units. Consequently, it is estimated that net sales will be 72,133 million yen, which is 1,267 million yen less than the previous forecast of 73,400 million yen.

While net sales will fall under the previous forecast, as a result of a reduction in sales and general administrative expenses, operating income will come to 15,035 million yen, 1,335 million more than the previous forecast of 13,700 million yen. Accompanying this revision of operating income is an expected increase of 1,558 million yen in ordinary income over the previous forecast of 20,700 million yen, resulting in a figure of 22,258 million yen.

Previously, the Company had forecast an approximate 3 billion-yen equity method investment loss under extraordinary income and losses due to Wynn Resorts, Limited conducting an acquisition of its own shares. However, it was decided to depreciate this loss over a five-year period, resulting in an approximate 3 billion-yen decrease in extraordinary losses. Furthermore, while approximately 8.5 billion yen was previously forecast for corporation income tax, etc., the amount of tax payment is expected to become approximately 4.7 billion yen. This is due to lawsuits for which an allowance was posted over previous years coming to a conclusion, thereby enabling the Company to deduct said allowance as an expense for tax calculation purposes. Additionally, among sales that were posted over previous years for tax purposes, the amount anticipated to be recognized for accounting purposes during the fiscal year in question increased. Lastly, tax-effect accounting yielded an increase in deferred tax assets of approximately 1.6 billion yen. Consequently, it is estimated that net profit for the fiscal year will come to 37,538 million yen, 10,538 million yen more than the previous forecast of 27,000 million yen.
