Today's Press Coverage

Today, Bloomberg published a biased article stating that, "On the 9th of this month, the U.S. government revealed in a court filing that U.S. investigating authorities are conducting a criminal investigation into Mr. Kazuo Okada, former vice president of U.S. company Wynn Resorts, who is suspected of having made payoffs to members of the Philippines casino regulatory authority". However, to be exact, the U.S. Department of Justice ("DOJ") has filed a motion for a partial stay of the State of Nevada court proceedings relating to the dispute between Wynn Resorts and our company, and the U.S. government is in fact investigating both Wynn Resorts and our company.

The company group has been offering its full cooperation with the U.S. government investigation.

In addition, the application for a stay of the State of Nevada court proceedings requests only a partial stay, rather than a stay on all proceedings.
